

Program Information

College:	Radow College of Humanities and Social Sciences
Department:	Interdisciplinary Studies
Program:	Black Studies, BA

Program Student Learning Outcomes

Upon completion of this degree from KSU, students will be able to:

- Apply intercultural competence to a variety of social issues and group formations.
- Examine intersecting structures of power and their effects on policy, positionality, and other aspects of life for peoples of African descent in the Diaspora.
- Explain historical and contemporary intellectual currents in Africa, African America, and the African Diaspora.
- Apply theoretical, research-based, interdisciplinary, and/or practical approaches to challenges facing Black communities locally and globally, including in the workplace and in policy development.
- Evaluate various forms of cultural expression (art, music, literature, film, among others) of the Black experience across the Diaspora.
- Examine issues in African and African Diaspora Studies using interdisciplinary and/or multidisciplinary approaches.
- Communicate effectively about Africa and/or the African Diaspora.