

DO YOU SPEAK A LANGUAGE OTHER THAN ENGLISH?

You may qualify for FREE education in TESOL at Kennesaw State University through our grant-sponsored program, Expanding Bi/Multilingual Teacher Pathways in Georgia!

WHY JOIN?

- ✓ Earn a master's teaching degree in TESOL (MAT in TESOL) or an Undergraduate Level ESOL Endorsement at no cost to you.
- ✓ Join a professional community focused on TESOL, multilingual education, and cultural diversity.
- ✓ Receive financial, academic, and socio-emotional support throughout your program
- ✓ Take advantage of flexible, online, and hybrid course offerings.

WHO SHOULD APPLY

- Bi/multilingual individuals with bachelor's degrees, including current paraprofessionals, substitute teachers, content area in-service teachers, educators, school leaders and/or administrators, any other community members, and caregivers with an immigrant and/or Native American background.
- KSU undergraduate students in teacher education programs

WHICH PROGRAM TO CHOOSE?

- TESOL Master of Arts in Teaching (MAT) program leading to initial teacher licensure in ESOL P-12 (12 courses)
- ESOL Endorsement at the Undergraduate Level (3 courses)

For more information or to apply, contact: Dr. Tuba Angay-Crowder tangaycr@kennesaw.edu