Student Initials	Acknowledgement
	I may not be permitted another attempt in the above course even if I earn a grade of 'D' or higher.
	Withdrawing with a 'W' will still count as this attempt and I may not be allowed another, regardless of past performance, course assessment grades, final grades or extenuating circumstances.
	I am expected to make every effort to prioritize actions that will lead me to be successful in this course.
	I am aware that I may have to change my major or minor if I am not successful in this attempt.
	I will seek out resources and practices that will enable me to be successful in this course, including talking with an Academic Advisor or Graduation Coach.
	I will seek assistance to be successful in school if I am having trouble understanding course content, life circumstances beyond my control impact my ability to engage and be successful in this course, or I encounter personal difficulties that may lead to being unsuccessful (e.g. depression, anxiety, loss of job or loved one, transportation difficulties, housing circumstances, substance abuse, etc.)
	I will be expected to seek tutoring, attend Supplemental Instructions (if available), and work with my instructor to ensure I earn a passing grade in this attempt.
	Getting an Incomplete/'I' grade for this attempt does not mean I will be permitted an override for another attempt.
	If I am unsuccessful in this attempt and do not provide evidence of having sought support or utilization of success resources (tutoring, advising, counseling, support of professor in additional attempt, etc.) I understand I will not be approved for any additional attempts.
