W. Jason Atkins, MBI, RN-BC
VP, Chief Clinical Informatics Officer

Professional Background

- Jason Atkins is a registered nurse and informaticist with a background in critical care and interventional radiology. The past 18 years has focused on the development of clinical informatics strategies and supporting clinicians in effective implementation, design, and optimization of clinical technologies.

- His previous roles have been in electronical medical record software development as analyst, project manager, and product manager, Chief Health Information Officer for Veteran's Affairs in New England, and Chief Nursing Information and Quality Officer for Emory Healthcare.

- Jason holds a BSN from University of South Carolina, a Master of Biomedical Informatics from Oregon Health & Science University, and is board certified in Nursing Information

Areas of Focus

- Workflow Efficiency and Clinical Process Improvement
- Data analysis and performance trending
- Stakeholder Collaboration and Solution Architecture
- Clinical Builder Program
- Clinical Decision Support
- Virtual Care/Telehealth
- Digital Innovation and Emerging Tech