Program Information

College:	College of Computing and Software Engineering
Department:	Information Technology – Graduate
Program:	Enterprise IT Management, Certificate

Program Student Learning Outcomes

Upon completion of this degree from KSU, students will be able to:

1. Apply policy and law, system management, and development into the enterprise industry.

2. Develop a solid foundation in industrial standards, best practices, and applications in enterprise IT management areas.