KENNESAW STATE UNIVERSITY

Program Information

College:	Coles College of Business
Department:	Information Systems and Security
Program:	Information Systems, MSIS

Program Student Learning Outcomes

Upon completion of this degree from KSU, students will be able to:

- Use an integrated approach to evaluate technology solutions to organizational problems.
- Demonstrate a global perspective of technology and the organization.
- Analyze and integrate technical data, trends and charts in business communication.
- Develop ethical information security plans to protect organizational information assets and minimize risk.