

Program Information

College:	Radow College of Humanities and Social Sciences
Department:	School of Conflict Management, Peacebuilding and Development
Program:	International Conflict Management, PhD

Program Student Learning Outcomes

Upon completion of this degree from KSU, students will be able to:

- Demonstrate knowledge of the theoretical and historical foundations of conflict management, international relations, economics of conflict, and intercultural dynamics of conflict
- Demonstrate the ability to apply the concepts and theories of international conflict management to relevant conflict related problems
- Demonstrate intercultural competency
- Demonstrate the ability to design and conduct research using quantitative methods
- Demonstrate the ability to independently design and conduct research using qualitative methods
- Demonstrate the ability to integrate interdisciplinary knowledge about conflict to their chosen area of research
- Critically reflect on the intersections and linkages between theory and practice in conflict management