PROGRAM OVERVIEW

During the course of this degree program, you will address various critical issues within criminal justice, including criminal justice management and global criminal justice. The program provides you an opportunity to understand the significance of cultural diversity within the criminal justice context. This expertise is essential for success in contemporary criminal justice agencies and related private sector organizations in Georgia and elsewhere.

Delve into a focused and interactive educational experience designed to equip you with the knowledge and skills in criminal justice administration, including critical thinking and communication, as well as in relevant technologies and information sources.

DUAL DEGREE PROGRAM

Explore the opportunities available through our dual degree program. We offer a dual degree with the Master of Public Administration (MPA) and the Master of Science in Criminal Justice (MPA/MSJ). This dual degree program could be the right path for you.

NEED A CAREER BOOST?

Taking steps to advance your career is an investment in your professional growth and future earning potential. We deliver programs that are flexible, accessible, affordable, and delivered in a range of modalities from fully in-person, hybrid, and fully online to meet your needs.

Americans with a master's degree earn 20% more than those with a bachelor's degree, according to the US Bureau of Labor Statistics' 2020 data.

The MSCJ graduate degree program addresses a range of relevant issues within criminal justice, including topics related to criminal justice management, criminology, and advances in the tools and technology that are essential to success in this field. Our faculty focus on curriculum that is designed to develop the skills and expertise in areas that enhance your marketability and support your professional value in a range of justice-related career paths.
