HON-Prefix Courses

Course	Course Title	CRN	Instructor	Date and Time
HON 1100 (1 credit hour)	Honors Foundations	Various	Various	Various
This course introduces students to the foundations of an honors education. Guided by honors faculty, students explore and engage in various forms of academic inquiry, apply knowledge and skills to real-world scenarios, and reflect on their learning and skills development in a supportive community.
HON 1200 (1 credit hour)	Honors Connections	Various	Various	Various

This course connects students to academic opportunities and campus resources essential to an honors education. Students attend workshops and events with peers, engage with community partners and mentors, and complete an application for an external scholarship or fellowship.
HON 2400/01 (0 credit hours)	Honors Discovery: Sustainability and Resilience	87182	María del Mar Ceballos	T: 5:00pm–7:00pm (Marietta) (7-week I)
In this course, students from all disciplines will explore sustainability and resilience using the KSU campuses as real-world case studies. Students will examine the environmental impact of current campus operations and investigate ongoing initiatives aimed at reducing our collective footprint. Topics discussed will range from design and resource optimization to waste management and public health. The course will focus on current strategies to promote a sustainable, resilient environment for both present and future generations of Owls.
HON 2400/02 (0 credit hours)	Honors Discovery: Dialogue at Play	87448	Harrison Long	F: 3:30pm–5:30pm (Kennesaw) (7- week I)
This course will explore, identify, and develop Gordon's conditions of dialogue through theatre games and improvisation exercises. Participants will participate in brief guided journaling exercises and reflect about their discoveries with the group. The final project will be a brief paper that synthesizes learning during the course period.
HON 2400/03 (0 credit hours)	Honors Discovery: It's the End of the World As You Know It...Will You Be Fine?	87451	Kristina Clement and Leslie Drost	T: 2:00pm–4:00pm (Kennesaw) (7- week II)
“It’s the End of the World As You Know It...Will You Be Fine?” is a five-week course where students explore critical decision-making, effective teamwork, research strategies, and civic-minded leadership---all within the context of surviving hypothetical apocalypse scenarios. This course challenges you to engage in collaborative simulations where you and your classmates get to craft the perfect team to survive an apocalypse. The course emphasizes the importance of information literacy and strategic thinking. But the big question is...will you make the right choices for your and your team to make it through the apocalypse?
HON 2400/04 (0 credit hours)	Honors Discovery: Slow it Down: Slow Movements in Society	87450	Chris Sharpe	W: 9:30am– 11:30am (Kennesaw) (7- week I)

Join us for a five-session Honors Discovery class that looks at how slow movements have developed in society. The Slow Food movement, which began in Italy and is now an organization, has inspired several other movements and proposals. This Honors Discovery class examines the origin of these movements and their common values and attributes. In this 5-week course, we will look at how these movements incorporate environmentalism, mental health, reflection, and social justice. Students will analyze a slow movement practice to consider the impact it may have on social, economic, cultural, and political life.

HON 2400/05 (0 credit hours)	Honors Discovery: Building Utopias Through Science	87868	Megan Adams	W: 12:30pm– 2:30pm (Kennesaw) (7- week I)

This five week discovery course will allow students to consider innovations and understandings in science that have led to significant technological advancements or new knowledge. By beginning with these pivotal discoveries, we will then journey to what knowledge existed prior to those discoveries and trace how scientists moved from what was known to new knowledge. Following, we will imagine what we know now that might become outdated in the future and what advancements are needed in order for those innovations to occur. To wrap up our journey, we will first determine what specific fields are required that might not yet exist for those innovations, and then we will determine where in an educational journey those fields would begin.

HON 2400/06 (0 credit hours)	Honors Discovery: Their Brother’s Keepers: Rescue During the Holocaust	87885	Katy Matello	TH: 2:00pm– 4:00pm (Kennesaw) (7- week I)

During the Holocaust, assistance from gentiles often meant the difference between life and death for Jews in occupied Europe. Those who provided aid to Jews risked the possibility of imprisonment or even death. So what motivated gentiles to take such risks and rescue their Jewish neighbors and how did rescue vary across occupied Europe? This course explores how we understand rescue and aid provided to Jews during the Holocaust, how rescue efforts played out on the ground, and the nature of the motivations of the aid providers. In addition, the class considers how rescue activities are remembered individually and organizationally as well as the institution of “Righteous Among the Nations.”

HON 2400/07 (0 credit hours)	Honors Discovery: Doing Good with Good Engineering	87884	Christina Scherrer	M: 9:30am– 11:30am (Marietta) (7-week I)

This class explores the intersection of engineering and social good, focusing on how technological and systems innovations can tackle pressing global challenges. Students will examine engineering solutions in areas such as humanitarian relief, biomedical engineering, clean water, healthcare access, and more. Through a mix of real-world examples, cutting-edge research and case studies, we'll gain a deeper understanding of how engineering can be a powerful tool for enhancing quality of life here in the US and worldwide. (Note: While some math and engineering content will be presented, this course will be very accessible to all interested majors.)

HON 2400/08 (0 credit hours)	Honors Discovery: Music of the Commonwealth	87993	Peter Fielding	W: 9:30am–11:30am (Kennesaw) (Full term)
In support of the Year of the United Kingdom, this course will survey historic and contemporary musics of the Commonwealth of Nations; a voluntary association of 56 nations. Themes and repertoire will span traditional, Classical, ceremonial/royal, and contemporary popular music of the United Kingdom and the Commonwealth. This course will meet once every other week for 10 weeks.
HON 2400/09 (0 credit hours)	Honors Discovery: Brand Management	88042	Pramod Iyer	TH: 2:00pm–4:00pm (Kennesaw) (7-week I)
Properly managed brands help drive consumer loyalty and create sustainable differentiation and competitive advantage. Building and maintaining a brand's equity can drive superior financial results and long-term success. This course provides students with insights into the complexity of brand management, strategy, and innovation centered on understanding the target audience and branding. A blend of marketing theory topics, guest speakers (if time permits), hands-on assignments, and cases provides students with a complete perspective of the brand management function.
HON 2800 (0 credit hours)	Honors Applied Learning Experience	82247	Nicholas Ellwanger	N/A
An Honors Applied Learning Experience is a way to acquire hands-on experience related to your major in a meaningful way that is less formal than an internship. Some common types of applied learning include volunteering, shadowing a professional in your future field, and observations. At least 48 hours of applied learning experiences are required, along with a written proposal due three days prior to the end of the add/drop period and a written report and reflection on the experience by the final class day of the semester.
HON 3002 (0–3 credits)	Honors Research	82249	TBA	N/A

This course enables Honors students to earn course credit and gain hands-on experience by assisting a professor with his or her research. Students work one-on-one within their major field or within a closely related field doing primary and/or secondary research for a research project conducted by the instructor. Requires submission of Honors Research Assistance proposal and departmental approval before end of current semester. For more information on proposing, please visit <https://www.kennesaw.edu/honors/student-resources/student-documents.php>. Upon approval of Research Assistance experience, student will be provided an override to register for HON 3002. Available in 0-, 1-, 2-, and 3-credit hour options.

HON 3102 (0 credit hours)	Honors Peer Mentoring	82253	Shane Peterson	N/A
Honors Peer Mentors work directly with students enrolled in sections of honors core courses. Peer Mentors are trained to encourage student engagement in learning experiences as well as social opportunities, and they help facilitate connections for students in the course in which they serve. Students can apply to be an Honors Peer Mentor at the following link: https://kennesawstateuniversity-vbzux.formstack.com/forms/peer_mentor_application_fall_2025. For questions, please reach out to Dr. Shane Peterson (speter71@kennesaw.edu).
HON 3203 (0–3 credits)	Honors Teaching Assistance	82254	TBA	N/A
This class is intended to help students develop teaching and leadership skills within their major field or a field of interest. Students will assist a professor in teaching duties. The class teaches students how to disseminate ideas and how to assess learning. It teaches communication skills since teaching assistants will work one-on-one, in small groups, and full class with students taking the course. Requires submission of Honors Teaching Assistance proposal and departmental approval before end of current semester. For more information on proposing, please visit https://www.kennesaw.edu/honors/student-resources/student-documents.php. Upon approval of Teaching Assistance experience, student will be provided an override needed to register for HON 3203. Available in 0-, 1-, 2-, and 3-credit hour sections.
HON 3497 (1 credit hour)	Honors Pathways	Various	Various	Various
This course encourages students to reflect on their learning journey so far, review their values and goals in light of those experiences, and use this knowledge to develop application materials for an external opportunity.

HON 3499/W01 (0 credit hour)	Preparing Competitive Awards	82257	Michelle Miles	TBA
This course is designed to prepare students to operate at advanced levels as academically-prepared professionals in their various fields. Students in the course will learn how to navigate the world of major competitive awards as an arena which they will inhabit in their future careers as researchers, teachers, and professionals. Students interested in participating in this course should email onisf@kennesaw.edu for more information.
HON 4102/W01 (0 credit hours)	Honors Leadership Practicum: Honors Ambassadors	82258	Caitlin O'Kelley	N/A
KSU Journey Honors College Student Ambassadors are a volunteer group of students who are selected to support the program's development and stewardship efforts, and who educate, excite, and engage with potential students, alumni, donors, and community members to ensure the program's continued success. Honors Ambassadors are expected to complete 15 hours of service for the semester to receive credit for this Honors Learning Experience.
HON 4102/W02 (0 credit hours)	Honors Leadership Practicum: Honors Advisory Leadership Council	82259	Keir Singleton- Ortiz	N/A
The Honors Advisory Leadership Council (HALC) is a select group of honors students who assume leadership positions on the KSU campus. These students are dedicated to serve as liaisons between Honors students and faculty, staff, administration, and alumni. The Honors Council consists of a President, Vice-President, Social Chair, Communication Chair and Members- at- Large who are elected to office by students within the Honors Advisory Leadership Council. During the academic semesters, the HALC will represent the KSU Journey Honors College. College student population when speaking with Honors staff. This group will work directly with the Dean of KSU Journey Honors College and Honors staff collaboratively in dynamic and innovative ways to establish and nurture relationships between students and faculty, staff, administration, and alumni. Please refer to Opportunities for Honors Students webpage under the "Current Honors Students" menu at honors.kennesaw.edu for more details. "
HON 4497/W01 (0-1 credit hour)	Honors Senior Capstone Proposal	82261	Nicholas Ellwanger	N/A

To complete their honors requirements, students design and execute a senior project reflecting original research; an original synthesis of existing research; an application of existing research to a new context; original creative work, or the design and coordination of a major-related service learning project. This first capstone course gives students credit for producing a substantive honors capstone proposal. Be planning your topic and the faculty supervisor in your major who you would like to work with. Available in 0- or 1-credit hour sections. For more information on proposing, please visit <https://www.kennesaw.edu/honors/student-resources/student-documents.php>.
