

KSU LEARNING COMMUNITIES – KENNESAW CAMPUS

COLLEGE OF THE ARTS

LC #1 & #2 – Theatre: The Scholar Artist: Performance and Production

These Learning Communities (LC #1 and #2) are for first-year students currently participating in the Fall 2020 Theatre and Performance Studies LCs. These Learning Communities combine the development of skills in performance—storytelling, poetry, and performance art—with behind the scenes experience on a theatrical production.

DIVISION OF GLOBAL AFFAIRS

LC #3 and #4 – KSU in Tuscany: A Virtual Italian Experience

Each of these two-course Learning Communities (LC #3 and #4) are themed around internationalization, the university's commitment to preparing students for a globalized world and KSU's Educational Site in Montepulciano Italy. Providing courses that are broadly foundational to all disciplines, students have the opportunity to learn with faculty, and administrators who have diverse, multi-year experiences teaching, living and working at our world-class facility in this southeastern Tuscan town. These communities will be the next best thing to actually visiting and studying in Montepulciano Italy.

LEARNING COMMUNITIES FOR TARGET POPULATIONS

AAMI PROGRAM

LC #5 – African American Male Initiative (AAMI): African American Males Perspectives of Success

This second-semester Learning Community (LC #5) is for students currently enrolled in the Fall 2020 AAMI LC. This LC will use an interdisciplinary approach to support the identity and professional development of students in the African American Male Initiative (AAMI) program. Students will participate in academic projects and critical thinking activities that build a foundational understanding of American History, language, and global issues as they relate to identity development. For more information, contact Brandon Jackson, Associate Director of Cultural & Community Centers, 470-578-4518.

DUAL ENROLLMENT PROGRAM

LC #7 – Dual Enrollment Learning Community

Students who have been accepted into the Dual Enrollment Program are eligible for this Learning Community (LC #7). The Dual Enrollment Learning Community facilitates a more cohesive college experience for high school juniors and seniors by offering courses which assist with creating a sense of belonging, encouraging academic support and camaraderie, helping students to forge a successful academic journey, and supporting Dual Enrollment transition to full-time degree seeking students at KSU. These Learning Communities will receive additional student support from the Dual Enrollment Ambassadors and Owl Advising.
