From the President:

Charting a Course for Equity and Respect

Spring 2021 brings graduations, new journeys, and goodbyes. Sometimes, it seems like our lives are composed of many passages, many beginnings, and many endings. It is important to chart a course and follow the path that aligns with your beliefs and goals. President Papp sanctioned and was directly involved in the creation of a Part-Time Faculty Council (PTFC) in 2013, and sitting department chairs and directors unanimously voted to create an inroad for part-time faculty to participate in shared governance.

For six years of its eight years, I have represented two departments from the Bagwell College of Education. As a founding member, secretary, president, and Faculty Senator, my journey introduced me to many amazingly unselfish, brilliant colleagues and leaders who respect and support the expertise and contributions that faculty who teach part-time bring to Kennesaw State University. Through open dialogue and inclusion on committees, surveys, and on the Faculty Senate, the status and working conditions that faculty who teach part-time have become more visible and, hopefully, more valued.

None of the achievements of the past four years would have been possible without talented, committed officers who worked side-by-side to educate and support faculty who teach part-time and to do the behind the scenes work of researching communicating, training, and collaborating on PTFC issues. Let me clearly recognize the work of Vice-Presidents Chuck Jackson and Michael Perry, Secretaries Diana Honey, Kiera Morrison, and James Stinchcomb, and Parliamentarian Diana Honey.

Let me also thank those KSU leaders who walked the path with the PTFC and opened doors that were previously closed to part-time faculty: Founding Fathers: Tom Keene, Stephen Bartlett; Academic Affairs Members: Ron Matson, Kat Schwaig; Faculty Senate Presidents: Ken White, Jennifer Purcell, and Humayan Zafar. Finally, to my Department Chairs Past and Present: Mike Dishman, Ugena Whitlock, Lynn Stallings, Anete Vasquez, and Wendy Sanchez, a world of appreciation for allowing me to be a teacher and a leader.

I. Welcome

Joanne Lee

Meeting was called to order at 3:30pm via Zoom. Attendees were asked their name as introduction, if they were representative or guest, and department for roll call. Also, all to type in their name and department for attendance.

II. Approval of Minutes

James Stinchcomb

The minutes from the February 22nd meeting were shared in Teams group, in the listserv email, the PTFC Newsletter, and on the website and no corrections or additions were needed. Motion was made by Kimberly Watkins to accept the minutes as presented and seconded by Pearl Young; passed unanimously with no objections.

III. President's Update

Joanne Lee

A. Faculty Senate:

Joanne attended Faculty Senate as representative. Two items brought up to look into that would affect PTF: Looking at putting into syllabus that due to weather face-to-face instructors felt they are losing time with student and wanted to say that classes would go virtual during those situations. No decision was made and will be brought back up at a later time. A Senator asked if classes would remain virtual in the Fall 2021 or convert back to face to face; President Whitten suspected that we would return to face to face; no final decision has been made at this time and will have to wait and see. For other items discussed, you may review Faculty Senate minutes at: https://facultysenate.kennesaw.edu/meetings/Senate_March_Agenda.pdf

B. Joanne reminded representatives of our focus throughout this year at PTFC looking at where we have gone and where we still need to go: (a) communication; (b) pay; and (c) support; think about our priorities.

IV. Old Business

Michael Perry

- A. Faculty Senate on Plus/Minus grading system: Committee representatives from PTF were Joanne Lee, Michael Perry, and James Stinchcomb. Results from full-time and part-time faculty surveys showed there was no majority and the motion failed. Since it failed at the faculty level, there was no reason to move forward.
- B. Confirmation of returning and new representatives will be conducted and reviewed by Joanne Lee, Michael Perry, James Stinchcomb to make sure updated list is completed.
- C. PTF Teaching Award Updates: A representative wrote to Joanne stating that another department had a winner of an award but was not present to discuss with the council. Joanne asked all representatives to reach out to departments to double check to see if any PTF received any awards so that we can bring this to everyone's attention.
- D. New Term Mentioned by James Stinchcomb: Instead of Part-Time Faculty, the PTFC might consider referring to part-time as "Faculty who teach part-time." Mandy McGrew stated that she has used this term in previous work.
- E. Michael Perry stated that we are starting to have an impact within some departments and need to continue the push for inclusion in meetings and departmental work..

V. New Business

Joanne Lee

A. Nominations Process for PTFC Officers: Joanne reviewed the nominations process and need for a standing rule. Based on Article 3 of the Bylaws, the a process for the election of officers was proposed for adoption as a Standing Rule for the Part-Time Faculty Council. A motion to accept the standing rule for nominations as written and presented was made by Kimberly Watkins and seconded by Steve Walker. Motion passed by vote of 13 of representatives present for meeting with one objection.

- B. Nominations Committee: Joanne appointed Diana Honey as chair and asked for other representatives to email her if they were interested in serving on this committee. She would also reach out to some representative to volunteer
- C. Meeting with Chairs and Directors: Joanne will meet with Chair and Directors to discuss goals, pay raise and thank KSU, to ask for inclusion in department meetings to share expertise, and to bring representative into discuss scheduling to make sure class time does not interfere with monthly Monday meeting.
- D. Priorities for 2021-2023: Suggestions from the floor included annual trainings for faculty who teach part-time and a way for all representatives to share ideas
