1. EcoOwls: Students for Environmental Sustainability: Christian Thomas

This field trip will be an interactive and educational opportunity for students. Allowing students to see what we strive to protect. Students will meet on the Kennesaw campus and then carpool to the Chattahoochee nature center. We will spend a few hours there and then return to campus.

Travel Program- Field trip to the Chattahoochee nature center

Date- 4/8/2023

$380.00

2. American Institute of Architecture Students: Alanzo Price

This is an annual conference hosted by AIAS. The national organization is separated into 4 sectors and AIAS at KSU falls in the South Quad. This year's conference is hosted by SCAD AIAS in Savannah. This funding request is for the expense of tickets and travel. Tickets have traditionally been an obstacle in getting students to attend this event so having funding to pay for tickets would support students in representing the school at a national conference. The RSO intends to sponsor the purchase of tickets for the conference. Being that the conference is hosted by SCAD, students are only responsible for getting tickets.

Travel Program- REVIVAL - South Quad Conference

Date- 03/30/23-04/02/23

$2,375.00

3. Pre-Physician Assistant Club: Corene Fuller

The American Academy of Physician Assistants (AAPA) Conference is the official national conference for Pre-Physician Assistant and current Physician Assistant students. The conference will provide KSU students the opportunity to attend lecture sessions on the latest breakthroughs in medicine, collaborate with PA's and other Pre-PA students, and attend hands on workshops to learn essential skills such as point of care ultrasound testing and performing EKGs.
